Shape the Future of Global Infrastructure at Walmart

Walmart Global Tech is seeking a Principal Software Engineer to drive the architecture and development of our next-generation Zero-Touch Networking platform. In this role, you'll design intelligent, scalable systems that transform how infrastructure is managed across one of the world's largest technology environments.

This is a rare opportunity to apply your engineering leadership and deep technical expertise to solve real-world, global-scale infrastructure problems—automating systems that power over 10,000 locations and hundreds of millions of transactions daily.

Note- "Immigration sponsorship is not available in this role".

What You'll Do

- Define and lead architecture for core infrastructure automation components, including orchestrators, workflow engines, configuration managers, and auto-remediation pipelines.
- Build and scale intent-based networking capabilities that abstract away manual operations and enable real-time, policy-driven infrastructure control.
- Design extensible APIs and microservices that empower internal teams through intuitive, self-service automation.
- Lead platform reliability practices—ensuring high availability, robust observability, and clear incident response workflows.
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams (networking, SRE, cloud, security, observability) to align technical solutions with business needs.
- Mentor and influence engineers across the organization, shaping Walmart's infrastructure engineering culture and best practices.

Who You Are

- A strategic and hands-on engineering leader with 10+ years of experience building distributed systems or infrastructure platforms at scale.
- Deep expertise in infrastructure as code, network automation, and intent-based system design.
- Proficient in Go, Python, and frameworks like Django.

- Comfortable operating in environments with high reliability and uptime expectations (SLOs, error budgets, on-call rotations).
- Familiar with modern DevOps tooling: CI/CD pipelines, monitoring/alerting frameworks, GitOps practices.
- Experienced with source-of-truth systems (e.g., NetBox) and hybrid/cloud-native environments (Azure, GCP a plus).
- Strong communicator and technical influencer with a track record of leading by example.

Why Join Walmart Global Tech

- Build the platforms that power the world's largest retailer.
- Work at true global scale, solving complex engineering challenges with far-reaching impact.
- Join a mission-driven team where automation, reliability, and innovation are at the heart of everything we build.
- Grow your career alongside top talent in a culture that values ownership, innovation, and technical excellence.

Ready to lead the future of infrastructure automation?

Apply now and be part of the team shaping Walmart's digital infrastructure.
